

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has been very beneficial in the reduction of bothersome telemarketing calls. Do we have to pay to get UNLISTED telephone numbers to put a stop to these calls?

Thank you for your attention to these comments.